Build-A-Bear to Open at the World's Most Famous Toy Store

Just before Thanksgiving, Build-A-Bear Workshop will open a permanent shop inside the new FAO Schwarz New York City flagship store where visitors can make their own furry friends, including exclusive FAO Schwarz plush and New York-themed accessories. A giant Build-A-Bear rocket ship will stand ready for launch in the center of the staircase between the first and second floors; an animatronic construction bear and two astronaut bears will float around the rocket and provide a fun view from the second-story overlook.

Build-A-Bear Workshop Makes a Splash at Great Wolf Lodge

Build-A-Bear is opening permanent shops inside four Great Wolf Lodge locations, adding to the growing Build-A-Bear roster of tourist and entertainment-centric locations. Guests at these locations are sure to have a howling good time as they choose from an assortment of plush, clothing and accessories—including Great Wolf Lodge characters Wiley the Wolf, Brinley Bear, Sammy the Squirrel, and Violet the Wolf, plus coordinating outfits.
