

Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation Awards Grant to Local Children's Charity

February 12, 2009

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (Feb. 12, 2009) – The Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation is presenting the Jamison Children's Center with a grant for $1,000 to support its efforts to provide abused, neglected, and abandon children in Kern County a temporary, safe haven where their needs can be met. The grant is funded with the help of Champ—A Champion Fur Kids, a furry friend available in all Build A Bear Workshop® stores. With the sale of each Champ, $1 is donated through the Build-A-Bear Workshop Bear Hugs Foundation to organizations and programs that help children by researching childhood diseases, promoting child safety, and serving children with special needs.

"A fundamental principle of Build-A-Bear Workshop is giving back to the community," said Build-A-Bear Workshop Bearitory Leader, Mindy Powell. "We are proud to partner with our Guests to help this organization make the world a healthier and happier place for kids and families."

Build-A-Bear Workshop has always had a strong commitment to leave a pawstitive mark on the world. Since its inception in 1997, the Company has donated over $20 million to support causes related to children, animals and the environment, sharing the hug of a teddy bear wherever needed in local communities and abroad and recognizing kids doing great things.
